Thought Treasureable
Thrift of time will repay you in after life with a thousandfold of profit beyond your most canguine dreams.—William E. Gladstone.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jennings of Jacksonville, the latter president of the Florida federation, are Christmas guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan at their Miami home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williams of Homosassa, were in the city yesterday, coming to meet their daughter, Miss Marie Williams, who was returning home for the holidays from Gainesville, where she attends school. Mr. and Mrs. Williams made the trip in their car.

Miss Annie Sharpe arrived today from Atlanta to visit until the New Year with her aunt, Mrs. J. H. McClymonds.

Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Bennett and little son Frank, who are spending the winter at Pineola, have returned to the city to spend the holidays.

Miss Ethel Harrell of Roanoke, Va., is an attractive visitor, arriving today from Bennettsville, S. C., to visit her aunt, Mrs. Clarence Camp during the holidays. Miss Harrell and her sister, Miss Jennie Harrell, who arrived Saturday, are among the loveliest visitors who come to Ocala and their visits occasion much pleasure among their circle of friends.

Mrs. H. H. McDonald of Little Rock, Ark., is the charming guest of her son, Mr. Duncan McDonald at the Arms House.

Mr. Sam Pyles has given up his position with W. C. Capper Jr., undertaking establishment, of Jacksonville, a position he has held for some time and is now the guest for the holidays of his mother, Mrs. J. J. Pyles, arriving yesterday.

Miss Dora Williams, after an extended visit to her sisters, Mrs. P. W. Whiteside and Miss Josie Williams, has returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Pelot at Owens, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Pelot home last week in their new car, purchased in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Charles Peyser will not return home for the holidays but will prolong her visit with relatives in New York City until the latter part of January.

Mr. Wiley Burford, a student at Princeton University, has returned home for the holidays.

Miss Carrie Pelot, who has been visiting in Charleston, S. C., has returned to her home at Owens.

Judge and Mrs. W. S. Bullock and Miss Alice Bullock leave Thursday for Tampa to visit the former's daughters, Mrs. G. R. McKean and Mrs. C. V. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Poe were Christmas shoppers today from Dunnellon. They were accompanied by Masters Robert Glenn and Jack Igou, the two young sons of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Igou, who have been their guests since Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fishel and daughter Elizabeth, will arrive early Saturday morning to spend Christmas day and Sunday with Mr. Fishel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Fishel.

Miss Frances Anderson, who has been spending the past few months studying in New York city, will not return home for the holidays, but will remain in New York.—Times-Union.

Miss Marie Hulbert received a few friends yesterday afternoon at her home, entertaining them in pretty fashion with cards. She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Charles D. Hulbert, and Mrs. R. T. Hunter.—St. Petersburg Independent.

A total eclipse of the sun—a rare astronomical phenomenon—will be observed in all parts of North America early next year. The 1916 almanac fixes the date for February 3. The hours for the beginning and ending of the eclipse are not given. Many persons in Florida interested in scientific matters are making preparations to watch the eclipse through the most powerful telescopes obtainable. Astronomy classes at the colleges expect an unusual treat as it is only once or twice in a lifetime that a total eclipse of the sun may be seen. Aside from the total eclipse there will be two partial solar eclipses during 1915. There will occur July 30 and December 24. Neither will be visible in the United States. Two partial luna: eclipses, January 20 and July 14-15, will be visible to Florida observers.

Beautiful Dinner for Major and Mrs. Izlar

Fifty years ago today in Colleton county, South Carolina, near Walterboro, Major Laurie T. Izlar and Miss Ellen Rosalind Sanders were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Edmund Bellinger, an Episcopal clergyman at 8 o'clock in the morning. The marriage united two of the state's most distinguished families and the culmination of the romance was an event of widespread interest to hundreds of relatives and friends in the state who showered upon the happy young couple their felicitations.

Today Major and Mrs. Izlar, who are numbered among Ocala's most eminent citizens, are still the happy couple that they were half a century ago, and though not as young in years, they are just as young in spirit. Their home on Wenona street is the destination daily of friends who call to spend a pleasant half hour, an hour or longer with Mrs. Izlar or with both, if Major Izlar has returned from his law office and today many friends called or phoned to extend congratulations and best wishes. Messages from relatives and friends afar came, all adding joy to the notable occasion.

This evening at 6:30 o'clock, Major and Mrs. Izlar will be honor guests at a beautifully appointed dinner given by their younger daughter, Mrs. C. L. Anderson. In carrying out the gold and white color scheme which will be developed even in the minutest details, the originality and artistic ability of the hostess, characteristics will add a distinct charm to all of her social affairs, will be prettily evinced. The dinner will consist of seven courses and a number of the dishes which will be used in serving, are over two hundred years old and are the same that were used at the wedding breakfast of Major and Mrs. Izlar and later on at the weddings of their other daughter, Mrs. Samuel Buist of South Carolina and a son, Mr. M. E. Izlar, father of Dr. M. Carlisle Izlar of this city.

Mrs. Anderson's guests this evening will include only relatives. They will be her parents, Major and Mrs. Izlar, their son, Dr. A. L. Izlar and wife, Mr. Anderson and the grandchildren, who are Dr. M. C. Izlar, Mr. Laurie Izlar, little Miss Ellen Anderson and Masters Arthur and Clifford Anderson.

Mr. Valmore Izlar, who is in Colorado and Mrs. C. S. Buist of Blackville, S. C., were unavoidably prevented from being with their parents on their golden wedding anniversary. Had they come the family circle would have been completed.

Evans-Kichline

Miss Ethel Kichline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Kichline of Eastlake, will be married in Orlando tomorrow afternoon to Mr. H. Augustus Evans. The marriage will be at the Methodist parsonage and Rev. J. B. Ley will officiate. Only a few close friends of the contracting parties will be present. Miss Kichline resided in Ocala some years ago and has many friends here who will wish her much joy and happiness.

Mr. Evans is a young man of pleasing address and is popular with all his acquaintances throughout South Florida, where he travels for the Florida Hardware Company, Jacksonville.

The young couple will be at home to their friends in Orlando after January first, until which time they will visit friends in Jacksonville and other parts of the state.

Mr. J. E. Theus of the Theus Furniture company, who has been here for some weeks looking after the company's business, left yesterday for his home in Ocala.—Daytona Journal.

Mrs. Sanford Jewett and daughters Margaret and Nan, will arrive Thursday to spend the holidays with Miss Meta Jewett and Mr. Stephen Jewett. Mr. Jewett will join his family for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Birdsey and two children will reach the city Thursday to visit Mrs. Birdsey's mother, Mrs. H. A. Ford.

Mrs. J. C. Caldwell and two sons are in Jacksonville to remain through the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. McIntyre.

Why You Should Use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

Because it has an established reputation won by its good works.
Because it is most esteemed by those who have used it for many years, as occasion required, and are best acquainted with its good qualities.
Because it loosens and relieves a cold and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition.
Because it does not contain opium or any other narcotic.
Because it is within the reach of all. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere. Adv.
